

Provincial Drainage - Water Management Conference

A Realistic Approach To Water Management for Agriculture Producers

Monday, December 7, 2015
Earl Grey Hall
Earl Grey, Saskatchewan

- 9:30 am - Opening Remarks - Water Security Agency
- 9:45 am - New Water Security Agency Drainage Regulations
Doug Johnson, Manager of Integrated Water Services, Water Security Agency
- 10:30 am - Qualified Persons and Drainage Approvals - Julie McKenzie, PAg
- 11:00 am - Outline of the New Drainage Complaint Process
Dwayne Rowlett, Manager, Nipawin Water Security Agency Regional Office
- 12:00 pm - Lunch
- 1:00 pm - A producer's prospective on the benefits of forming Conservation and Development Areas
Charlie Templeton - Okabena Conservation and Development Area #176
- 1:30 pm - A Realistic Prospective on the Impact of Agriculture Drainage
TBD
- 2:00 pm - Connecting Rural Municipalities to Emergency Response Situations and the Provincial Disaster Assistance Program - Saskatchewan Ministry of Government Relations
- 2:45 pm - Coffee
- 3:00 pm - Available Funding for Agriculture Water Management Projects
TBD
- 3:30 pm - Emergency Flood Damage Control Program
Gary Neil - EFDP Program Manager Water Security Agency

Register for the Conference by contacting Colleen Fenning at 306-946-6533 or email to info@wuqwatr.ca before NOVEMBER 30, 2015

Cost: $75 per person (includes lunch)

WUQWATR

Wascana Upper Qu'Appelle Watersheds
Association Taking Responsibility

SAW Saskatchewan Association of Watersheds